ROBERT MENDONSA NAMED CHIEF HR OFFICER AT RADIA

Everett, Wash. – Expanding its expert leadership team, Radia welcomes Robert M. Mendonsa as its first Chief Human Resources Officer.

Mendonsa received his M.A. in Public Administration at California State University, and his B.A. in English at San Jose State University. He is certified as a Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR) by The Human Resource Certification Institute (HRCI), qualified in Myers-Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI) training and interpretation, and holds a Center for Creative Leadership’s Benchmarks Certification among others.

He joins Radia after serving for more than a decade as the leader of a boutique consulting firm located in Bellevue, Wash. and San Francisco, Calif. providing services in leadership development, organizational development, training and human resources. For a decade prior, he held increasingly responsible positions for Neopost, a worldwide supplier of mailing solutions, and Alcatel, an international communications company, serving as Human Resources Manager, Director of Human Resources and Vice President, Human Resources and Organizational Change.

“We’re pleased to welcome Bob to our team,” says Ellen Woodward, CEO of Radia. “He brings talent, experience, energy and a ‘learning organization’ philosophy that is essential to Radia’s vision of the future. This new position, and Bob’s presence, enables us to expand the focus on our people to better meet the needs of our physicians, staff and, ultimately, our patients.”

Mendonsa notes that he’s looking forward to being part of an internal team, dedicated to employee satisfaction and longevity. “I bring a mix of experience to the table,” he says, “including a strong focus on leadership and organizational development, HR policies and processes, and team building – all areas in which Radia has already made excellent progress and in which they have a strong desire to continuously improve. I am excited to be part of a team that knows how to achieve success and will accomplish great things in the future.” He and his wife, also an HR executive, live in Bellevue Wash.
